REVOCATION OF NOTICE OF FALLOWING

Application/Permit #

Applicant/Permitee Name:

Cultivation Site Address:

Calendar Year:

I hereby declare, under penalty of perjury, and provide notice to Mendocino County that:

I wish to Revoke the previously submitted of Notice of Fallowing submitted to the Cannabis Department for the calender year stated above. Per MCC 6.32.255(B), an applicant or permittee who has filed a Notice of Fallowing may revoke that notice by providing written notice to the Cannabis Department, on a form provided by the Cannabis Department and approved by County Counsel, of the intent to resume cultivation prior to the end of the fallow period. Such notice must be received by the Cannabis Department at least thirty (30) days before the resumption of any activity beyond what is allowed under paragraph A of this section. The form shall include an acknowledgment that the taxpayer shall be subject to the full minimum tax for the relevant calendar year.

I declare under penalty of perjury, under the laws of the State of California, that the statements made on this affidavit are true and correct, and, if applicable, that I am authorized to sign on behalf of the applicant listed above.
